Centennial Art Center

Come shop Centennial Art Center's Annual Holiday Exhibition and Sale. Art Center Students & Staff will be displaying and selling their hand-crafted artwork in the gallery—everything from pottery, sculpture, jewelry, paintings, greeting cards, and much more! This annual exhibit lets art-savvy shoppers find locally crafted gifts to give for the holidays. The Holiday Exhibition and Sale will open with a reception Friday, Nov. 8th from 5-7pm and will continue through Dec. 18th. Gallery hours are Mon-Thurs. 9-5pm. All sales are "cash & carry" but must be purchased with cash or check.

Centennial Art Center is located at the corner of 25th Ave. N. & Park Plaza in Centennial Park.

Thornton Metals Studio

Fine art jewelry conveys power and status, and can create a timeless message by the abstract use of line, form and color. Inspired by the gracious sophistication of Ancient and Modern art, metalsmith Susan Thornton folds, hammers, textures and solders precious metals into unique sinuous shapes with which to adorn the body. By appointment.
